Product Description

More than 70 million smartphones are reported lost or stolen each year. Think for a moment about the cost of replacing your lost iPhone®, the downtime, and the threat to your personal information and you'll see that Proximo is a must-have for any iPhone user. Proximo is an App-enabled proximity monitoring system that lets you know where your iPhone, keys and valuables are at all times. With Proximo, you'll never have to worry again about leaving your iPhone and valuables behind. That's because Proximo helps you Keep, Track and Get Back your iPhone and valuables.
